About Keymine Network

Building an Automated Future of Yield

We combine AI-driven trading with high-performance GPU/LPU clusters to deliver consistent, automated results. Transparent. Secure. Engineered for scale.

- Institutional-grade security
- 24/7 autonomous operations
- AI-assisted risk management
- GPU/LPU compute clusters

From Prototype to Production

Keymine Network started with a simple goal: engineer a reliable engine for digital asset growth. We architected a modular stack—ingestion, modeling, execution, and on-chain settlement—that scales horizontally and remains robust under volatility.

Today, our platform marries AI-driven trading with high-performance mining across proprietary GPU/LPU clusters, forming a balanced, continuously optimizing system.

- Transparent tracking & reporting
- Automated risk controls
- Composable infrastructure

Compute You Can Trust

Purpose-built GPU/LPU clusters with strict isolation, encrypted transit, and automated failover.

AI Trading Core

Feature stores, model orchestration, and execution rails with micro-batch controls.

Mining Fabric

Smart power curves, thermal management, and scheduler that tracks network difficulty.

Observability

Unified telemetry, anomaly detection, and SLA dashboards for all critical paths.

Compliance & Access

Role-based controls, audit trails, and vault-managed secrets across environments.

Proof of Legality & Certificate

Registered legal entity. EU-aligned KYC/AML.
Audited infrastructure partners.

Legal Posture

- Company formation & licensing: Registered entity operating within relevant EU frameworks.
- KYC/AML: Risk-based procedures, sanctions screening, periodic reviews.
- Datacenter & security: Access control, power redundancy, fire suppression, 24/7 monitoring.
- Transparency: Verifiable performance & downtime logs, monthly statements on request.

Investment Plans

Select a plan to start leveraging our high-performance computing network. Scale your earnings with secure and powerful GPU, LPU, and TPU resources.

Hash Pilot
